INTRODUCTION

For Lindos Hotels Group, hospitality is not simply a service, but a relationship built with consistency and dedication over time. The Group's journey begins in Lindos, a place of deep history and authentic character, and continues to evolve with respect, quality and a consistent commitment to the same values that have defined it from the start. Every step of growth, every new hotel and every guest experience reflects knowledge, care and a genuine connection to the island.

Rooted in Lindos, the Lindos Hotels Group has expressed the timeless hospitality of the Minettos family for decades, a tradition that naturally evolves from generation to generation.
